Book and baking sale

Elgin library will be holding a book and baking sale from 10am to 8pm tomorrow when there will be not only a full range of withdrawn library books for sale, but also a selection of home baking and candy.

Items from the baking sale have been donated by library staff and the proceeds will go to Playlist for Life, a charitable organisation which encourages and supports families and caregivers to create a playlist of personally meaningful music on an iPod for people with dementia.

Moray Council area stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Forres in the west. The council and its 4,500 employees respond to the needs of 95,510 residents in this beautiful part of Scotland, which nestles between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live.

Headquartered in Elgin, the administrative capital of Moray.
