

Aug 22, 2016 09:40 BST

Cullen and Deskford Communtiy Council

Nomination papers are now available for anyone who would like to stand for Cullen and Deskford Community Council.

An interim election is being held following a request to Moray Council to re-establish the community council, which was dissolved recently due to the resignation of a number of members.

The community council was formed following the regular community council elections in October 2013. A number of members subsequently resigned or left the area and an interim election was held in 2015 to boost membership. However, due to a further decline in membership, a further interim election is to be held.

There are nine seats available - six for Cullen and three for Deskford.

Candidates have until 4pm on Thursday, September 8 to lodge nomination papers with the returning officer at the election office within Moray Council.

In the event of there being more candidates than seats available, an election will be held by postal ballot during September.

Nomination papers can be downloaded from the Moray Council website at www.moray.gov.uk/elections, by calling 01343 563334 or by e-mailing election.enquiries@moray.gov.uk

Moray Council area stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Forres in the west. The council and its 4,500 employees respond to the needs of 95,510 residents in this beautiful part of Scotland, which nestles between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live.

Headquartered in Elgin, the administrative capital of Moray.

Contacts

Sharon Dunbar

Press Contact

Media and Communications Officer

sharon.dunbar@moray.gov.uk

01343 563046

07967 748826

Peter Jones

Press Contact

Communications manager

Press, public communications, social media, events, FOI, campaigns, crisis comms.

peter.jones@moray.gov.uk

01343 563601

07974 191318