Library art exhibition

Elgin library will host an exhibition by local artist Elaine R. Smith from July 16 to 29.

Elaine studied at Moray College and Glasgow School of Art and holds a BA (Hons) in fine art.

The exhibition, which consists of large oil paintings on hardboards and a selection of card-mounted prints, is entitled 'Homage to the spaceport that never was,' with space and defence as the main theme.

Moray Council area stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Forres in the west. The council and its 4,500 employees respond to the needs of 92,500 residents in this beautiful part of Scotland, which nestles between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live.

Headquartered in Elgin, the administrative capital of Moray.
