

Apr 07, 2016 09:08 BST

Library whisky festival opening

Dufftown library is to open its doors on the afternoon of Sunday, May 1 to coincide with a street fair being held as part of this year's Spirit of Speyside Whisky Festival.

Visitors will be able to make use of library services and a number of attractions have also been arranged, including an exhibition of photographs of Dufftown of yesteryear, whisky themed displays, a children's storytime and face-painting.

The library will be open from 2pm to 4pm and full details of the event are available by calling the library on 01340 820272 or e-mailing

Moray Council area stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Forres in the west. The council and its 4,500 employees respond to the needs of 92,500 residents in this beautiful part of Scotland, which nestles between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live.

Headquartered in Elgin, the administrative capital of Moray.

Contacts

Sharon Dunbar

Press Contact

Media and Communications Officer

sharon.dunbar@moray.gov.uk

01343 563046

07967 748826

Peter Jones

Press Contact

Communications manager

Press, public communications, social media, events, FOI, campaigns, crisis comms.

peter.jones@moray.gov.uk

01343 563601

07974 191318