Three-man art exhibition at Elgin library

The Gallery at Elgin library will be hosting an exhibition by three of Moray's best-known artists from April 23 to June 3.

Anthony Campbell's work is predominantly made up of landscapes and features locations on the west coast and around the Moray coast, while Ken MacLennan paints scenes from across the country and has exhibited throughout Scotland.

Bill Smith grew up on the shore of Loch Fyne in Argyll and his affinity with the west coast is evident in his work.

The exhibition will run during normal library opening hours which are 10am to 8pm Monday to Friday and 10am to 4pm on Saturday.

Moray Council area stretches from Tomintoul in the south to the shores of the Moray Firth, from Keith in the east to Forres in the west. The council and its 4,500 employees respond to the needs of 92,500 residents in this beautiful part of Scotland, which nestles between Aberdeenshire and the Highlands.

Famous for its colony of dolphins, fabulous beaches and more malt whisky distilleries than any where else in Scotland, Moray is a thriving area and a great place to live.

Headquartered in Elgin, the administrative capital of Moray.
